

Lexington Philharmonic Volunteer Application 2011-2012 Season

LexPhil values the experiences you have had that have helped you develop the skills and knowledge to be a successful volunteer. Before completing the Volunteer Application Form, please review the volunteer opportunities posted on our website and choose those that best fit your background and interests.

Volunteer applications are accepted at all times. We keep all applications on file, and will contact applicants with the required skills, interests and availability on an as-needed basis. Depending on your volunteer assignment, LexPhil reserves the right to conduct a background check. By submitting this application, you are agreeing to allow us to complete this process. All LexPhil volunteers must be 18 years or older unless volunteering with a parent or immediate relative, or as part of a school or community group that is supervised by adults in authority with the school or group.

For more information regarding LexPhil and volunteer opportunities, please visit www.lexphil.org or call our office at 859-233-4226.
